Not illustrated. 1911 Excerpt: ...23rd, 1825. t two years later, he was recommended for admission into Baltimore Conference of the M. E. Church. Two years of probationary trial having elapsed, on March 22, 1829, he was ordained Deacon in Baltimore, by Bishop Eobert Robert?, and two years later, March 20, 1831, was ordained Elder by Bishop Elijah Hedding. On February 7th, 1833, he was united in marriage to Susannah P. Thompson, daughter of Hugh and Ann Dodson Thompson of Berwick, Pa., Bev. William Prettyman performing the ceremony. His wife became indeed a thorough helpmeet to him,, through all his years of active labor, sharing bravely the privations of the early years, in the many homes of his ministry among strangers as their lot was so frequently cast. Two sons and two daughters were born of this union. The home life of husband and wife with their children was one of love and tenderness, and with the blessedness of religious influence and example, was such as to bring forth the fruit of good living, and the exemplification of the true Christian home. And so also in their intercourse with those among whom their lot was so frequently cast. Uniform kindness of heart ever characterized it, and there was a road to their hearts not hard to find. The services he rendered the Church of his choice as an itinerant minister and pastor can scarcely bo estimated or enumerated in a brief sketch, and in those pioneer days they were truly heroic. His first charge in 1827 embraced a circuit of six hundred miles, territory now forming the bounds of a conference. The deprivations endured, the dangers incurred, expedients resorted to in the face of unforeseen difficulties, oftinics of storm and flood, in order to meet appointments can scarcely be realized in th...
